PART II
JURISDICTION OF THE COURT

Establishment of A Gender Court.

26. There shall be established a specialized court known as “The Gender Court” in at least each of the 3 Senatorial Districts of the State for the purpose of hearing cases of Gender-Based Violence brought pursuant to the provisions of this Law.

Application for Protection Order.

27. (1) An application for a protection order shall be made before the Gender Court following a complaint of violence by the complainant and such order, if granted, shall be effective throughout the State and no time limit or prescription shall apply in relation to a person seeking to apply for such protection order.

- (2) Any complainant may, in the prescribed manner, apply to the Court for a protection order.
- (3) If the complainant is not represented by a counsel, the police officer with whom a complaint of violence has been lodged shall inform the complainant of the remedies he or she may be entitled to under this law including the right to lodge a criminal complaint against the respondent if a criminal offence has been committed under this Law.
- (4) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, the application may be brought on behalf of the complainant by any other person, including a police officer, a protection officer, an accredited service provider, a counsellor, health service provider, social worker or teacher who has interest in the well-being of the complainant.
Provided that the application shall be brought with the written consent of the complainant, except in circumstances where the complainant is –
 - (a) a minor;
 - (b) mentally retarded;
 - (c) unconscious; or
 - (d) a person who the Court is satisfied that is unable to provide the required consent.
- (5) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, any minor, or any person on behalf of a minor, may apply to the Court for a protection order without the assistance of a parent, guardian or any other person and such application shall be supported by an affidavit sworn to by the person who has knowledge of the matter concerned.

Consideration of Application.

- 28. (1) The Court shall as soon as is reasonably possible, consider an application submitted to it under Section 27 of this Law and may, for that purpose, consider such additional evidence as it deems fit, including oral evidence or evidence by affidavit, which shall form part of the record of the proceedings.
- (2) If the Court is satisfied that there is prima facie evidence that the respondent is committing, has committed or that there is imminent likelihood that he/she may commit an act of domestic violence, the Court shall, notwithstanding the fact that the respondent has not been given notice of the proceedings contemplated in subsection (1) of this Section, issue an interim protection order against the respondent, in the prescribed manner.
 - (3) An interim protection order shall be served on the respondent in the prescribed manner and must call on the respondent to show cause on the return date specified in the order why a protection order should not be issued.

- (4) A copy of the application referred to in Section 27 of this Law and the record of any evidence taken under subsection (1) of this section shall be served on the respondent together with the interim protection order.
- (5) If the Court does not issue an interim protection order under subsection (2) of this section, the Court shall direct the Registrar of the Court to cause certified copies of the application concerned and any supporting affidavit to be served on the respondent in the prescribed manner, together with aprescribed notice calling on the respondent to show cause on the return date, specified in the notice, why a protection order should not be issued.
- (6) The return dates referred to in subsections (3) and (5) of this Section shall not be less than 5 days after service has been effected upon the respondent.

Issuing of Protection Order.

- 29. (1) If the respondent does not appear on a return date contemplated in Section 28 (3) or (5) of this Law, and if the Court is satisfied that—
- (a) proper service has been effected on the respondent, and
 - (b) the application contains a prima facie evidence that the respondent has committed, is committing or that there is an imminent likelihood that he or she may commit an act of domestic violence, the court shall issue a protection order in the prescribed form.
- (2) If the respondent appears on the return date in order to oppose the issuing of a protection order, the court shall proceed to hear the matter and consider –
- (a) any evidence previously received under Section 28 (1) of this Law; and
 - (b) such further affidavits or oral evidence as it may direct, which shall form part of the record of the proceedings.
- (3) The Court may, on its own accord or on the request of the complainant, order that in the examination of witnesses, including the complainant, a respondent who is not represented by a legal practitioner –
- (a) is not entitled to cross-examine directly a person who is in a domestic relationship with the respondent; and
 - (b) shall put any question to such a witness by stating the question to the Court, and the Court is to repeat the question accurately to the witness.
- (4) The Court shall, after hearing as contemplated in subsection (2) of this section, issue a protection order in the prescribed form if it finds, on a balance of probabilities, that the respondent has committed, is committing or that there is an imminent likelihood that he or she may commit an act of domestic violence.

- (5) Upon the issuing of a protection order, the Registrar of the Court shall, in the prescribed manner, cause –
 - (a) the original of such order to be served on the respondent; and
 - (b) a certified copy of such order, and the original warrant of arrest contemplated in section 32 (1) (a), to be served on the complainant.
- (6) The Registrar of the Court shall, in the prescribed manner, forward certified copies of any protection order and of the warrant of arrest contemplated in section 32 (1) (a) to the police station of the complainant's choice.
- (7) Subject to the provisions of Section 30 (7) of this Law, a protection order issued under this Section remains in force until it is set aside, and the execution of such order shall not be automatically suspended upon the filing of an appeal.

Court's Powers in Respect of Protection Order.

30. (1) The Court may, by means of a Protection Order referred to in section 27 or 28 of this Law, prohibit the respondent from –
 - (a) committing any act of domestic violence;
 - (b) enlisting the help of another person to commit any such act;
 - (c) entering a shared household provided that the court may impose this prohibition only if it appears to be in the best interests of the complainant;
 - (d) entering a specified part of such a shared household;
 - (e) entering the complainant's residence;
 - (f) entering the complainant's place of employment;
 - (g) preventing the complainant from entering or remaining in the shared household or a specified part of the shared household;

 - (i) renouncing his or her rights in the shared household except in favour of the complainant; or
 - (j) committing any other act as specified in the protection order;
- (2) The Court may impose any additional condition, which it deems reasonably necessary to protect and provide for the safety, health or well-being of the complainant, including an order –
 - (a) to seize any arm or dangerous weapon in the possession or under the control of the respondent;
 - (b) that a police officer shall accompany the complainant to a specified place to assist

- with arrangements regarding the collection of personal property;
- (c) directing the respondent to secure alternative accommodation for the complainant;
 - (d) order a temporal relocation to any safe place as may be deemed fit in the interest of the complainant; or
 - (e) approve a mediation channel upon submission by the complainant.
- (3) In ordering a prohibition under subsection 1 (c) of this Section, the Court may impose on the respondent obligations as to the discharge of rent or mortgage payments having regard to the financial needs and resources of the complainant and the respondent.
 - (4) The Court may order the respondent to pay emergency monetary relief having regard to the financial needs and resources of the complainant and the respondent, and such order has the effect of a civil judgment of a Court.
 - (5) The Court may issue any direction to ensure that the complainant's physical address is not disclosed in any manner, which may endanger the safety, health or well-being of the complainant.
 - (6) If the court is satisfied that it is in the best interests of any child, it may –
 - (a) refuse the respondent contact with such child; or
 - (b) order contact with such child on such conditions as it may consider appropriate.
 - (7) The Court may not refuse to issue a protection order or impose any condition or make any order which it is competent to impose or make under this section, merely on the grounds that other legal remedies are available to the complainant.
 - (8) If the Court is of the opinion that any provision of a protection order deals with a matter that should, in the interests of justice, be further dealt with under any other relevant law, including the Matrimonial Causes Law, Cap. M7 Laws of the Federation, 2010, Child's Rights Law, the Court shall order that such a provision shall be in force for such limited period as the Court determines, in order to afford the party concerned the opportunity to seek appropriate relief under such law.

Powers of Police.

- 31. (1) A police officer, at the scene of an incident of violence or as soon thereafter as reasonably possible or to whom a report of violence has been made, shall have the duty of-
- (a) assisting a victim of violence to file a complaint regarding the violence;
 - (b) providing or arranging safe transport for the victim to an alternative residence, safe place or shelter where such is required;
